

CHECK FOR $160,000 is presented by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn to City Manager Wade Peebles (left) of Torrance for the improvement of Redondo Beach Blvd. between Hawthorne Blvd. and Gramercy Pl., within the city. Supervisor Hahn commended Torrance for its fine cooperation in improving this major boulevard which served the entire southern section of the county, and which will be a special benefit to the students of El Camino College and the motorists in this general area.

Mesa Palos Verdes Draws with Its Prestige Location

The prestige location of Mesa Palos Verdes, the new $38 million community high atop Palos Verdes Peninsula, has been an important factor in attracting crowds of homebuyers to this area. Equally important in accounting for sales is the thoughtful design of the 3-, 4- and 5-bedroom homes which developer Ray Watt considers his finest achievement. Just as the Peninsula itself offers the utmost in beauty and seclusion, so the homes at Mesa Palos Verdes combine beauty, privacy, utility and charm in a handsome setting.

Priced from $39,750, these one-, two- and tri-level homes include spacious family rooms, rumpus rooms with wet bar, indoor and outdoor patios and fireplaces with log lighters. Sales director Glen Stubbs notes that in addition to the Diamond Head, award-winning Balanced Power model featured in the 1963 Home Show, there are six other models on view, and the buyer may choose from five different outside elevations for each home.

Investment in the Palos Verdes area has long been considered one of the best in the Southland, Watt says. Property values have risen from 10 to 15 per cent each year for the past five years. The tax rate of $7.92 per $100 assessed valuation is considerably below the county average. The financial advantages of the area, coupled with the spectacular views and country estate atmosphere, account for the lively interest in Mesa Palos Verdes. Five furnished models with runner-up Bob Castle and Jack DeArmond, who holds the third-place spot. DeArmond added 286 points last month to jump from fifth to third place in the standings. Strong competition in next Friday's race also is expected from Frank Allen of Torrance, track record holder in 9:05 seconds. More than 30 NMRA midget drivers are expected to enter the race, which begins at 8:15 p.m., with qualifying at 7 p.m.

may be viewed at the corner of Crenshaw and Crest Road, high atop the Palos Verdes Peninsula. The sales office may be reached by calling 377-6575.

SENIOR BOWLERS FACE DISC JOCKEYS —AND EVERYONE'S STILL SPINNING!

By RUTH CAUDLE
The National Fifty and Over Bowling Club tangled with the KMPC Disk Jockeys at Rose Lanes Sunday evening. This was their fourth match against these demons of the airways. They bowl the same way they announce their programs — you never know what they are going to do next. They have a bad habit of taking back to the station the beautiful trophy donated by Fleet Trophy Co. Our hopefuls for winning this time were LeVaughn Henning, paired with Jim O'Leary, the happy fellow who keeps you the same way from midnight to 6 a.m. LeVaughn, 432; Jim 435. Lois McCarthy, 409; Scott Shurjan, newscaster, 298; Everett Hillicker, 448; Jack Fisher, 474; Art Kruger, 464, Merlyn Sheets, producer, 460; Tony Kowalczyk, 485 as we are to have them. Saturday the club traveled to Santa Monica to honor Nellie Kerchner with an honorary membership card in the club. Nellie is 87 years young. She started to bowl when she was 65. She bowls in three leagues a week and carries a 125 average. The National Fifty and Over Bowling Club is indeed proud to have this charming lady as a member. A beautiful cake was donated by Civic Lanes. After the ceremonies the 30 members who attended proceeded to the lanes for a three-game bowling session. Mary Jane Millard and husband J.J. went to the hot springs for a rest, but Mary Jane is getting more rest than she bargained for. She unfortunately turned her ankle and has to wear a cast but that does not keep her away from the bowling lanes. She cannot bowl, but she can take care of her duties as secretary of the league, and a mighty fine secretary she is, too.

Weekly Winners
In the Golden State Singles, taking place at Gable House Bowl, weekly winners are—Class A, Robert Nugen, 683, 688; Bernard Walker, 238; Walt Labor, 247. Class B: Mike Ellis, 633; Nick Fuscardo, 627; William Cottle, 242; Jerry Witt, 210. Class C: Timothy Galloway, 558; Warren Underwood and Ruth Lingco, 201; Michael Alexiuk, 598; Ann Newcome, 209.

It looks like Gable House is coming up with some mighty fine over-200 games in league play. Connie Brown and Carol McClane, 202; Ruth Emerch and Kathy Mahoney, 201; Edith Eakins, 203; Betty DeGando, 204; Grayce Santa, 209; Pearl Morgan, 208; Naomi Kast, 210; Joan Beck, 210; Louise Ansley, 211; Verla Orr, 212; Lee Walker, 215; Jerry Sansbury, 214; Irene Whalen, 218, and Shirley an even 200.

The National Fifty and Over Bowling Club held their third annual election of officers recently at Rose Lanes Bowl. After a delicious dinner prepared by Luigi, who left nothing to be desired, the meeting was called to order by Harry Fielding. Installation of incoming officers followed. Those elected to office: Alvin Henning, president; Nelson Hopkins, vice president; Art Krueger, secretary-treasurer, and Lillian Stafford, sergeant-at-arms.

Alvin Henning appointed Wanda Kowalczyk sunshine chairman. She in turn appointed her committee as follows: LeVaughn Henning, Carmen Hopkins, Lillian Stafford and Sylvia Hillicker.

We would like to thank the outgoing officers for the splendid work they have done to make this past year such a successful one. Harry Fielding, president; Helen Shively, vice president; Mary Jane Millard, secretary-treasurer, and Beulah Richmond, sunshine chairman. It is good to see Beulah again after her weeks in the hospital due to an auto accident.
